INDIAN AIRLINES EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT FUND
NEW DELHI

No. PFB/2.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 45 of the Air Corporations Act, 1953 (27 of 1953), the Indian Airlines, with the previous approval of the Central Government hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Indian Airlines Employees' Provident Fund Regulations, 1955, namely :—

1. These regulations may be called the Indian Airlines Employees' Provident Fund (Amendment) Regulations, 1973.

2. They shall come into force with effect from the 1st day of January, 1971

3. In the Indian Airlines Employees' Provident Fund Regulations, 1955.—

(i) in regulation 18,—

(a) for sub regulation (1), the following sub regulation shall be substituted, namely—

(i) "An employee shall, at the time of joining the Corporation, send to the Provident Fund Section a nomination, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable has not been paid notwithstanding that he will become a subscriber to the Fund only after the completion of one year's continuous service in the Corporation"

(b) in sub-regulation (2) and sub-regulation (4) to (7) for the words "a subscriber", "A subscriber" and "Subscriber" wherever they occur, the words "an employee", "An employee" and "employee" shall be respectively substituted;

(ii) for regulation 19-A, the following regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

"19-A—Non refundable withdrawals. Subject to the conditions specified herein, non-refundable withdrawals may be sanctioned by the competent authority from the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the member in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely—

(1) Building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence or a house site or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by a member, provided that—

(a) the withdrawal shall be granted to the member only once after his completion of twenty years of service (including service of any ex-air company) or within ten years before the date of his retirement, whichever is earlier;

(b) the amount of withdrawal shall not exceed the limit of 75% of member's own subscription to Provident Fund and interest thereon;

(c) the amount sanctioned for the construction of a house shall be paid in two phases of equal instalments and the construction of the house shall commence within six months of the withdrawal of the first instalment and shall be completed within six months of the withdrawal of the final instalment and in case of purchase of a ready built house or house site the purchase shall be completed within six months of the withdrawal of the amount;

(d) no withdrawal shall be granted for purchasing share in the joint property or building a house on land owned jointly;

(e) if the amount withdrawn is not actually utilised for the purpose for which it was sanctioned or the withdrawal exceeds the amount actually spent for the purpose for which it was sanctioned, the excess amount in the latter case and the whole amount in the first case shall have to be refunded by a member to the Fund within two months after the expiry of the period as specified in clause (c) above.

(f) A member after having acquired housing properties from the amount withdrawn from his Provident Fund Account shall not sell that property or raise any loan against such property before the date on which he would have been entitled to receive his provident fund.

(g) A member who has availed himself of an advance under the scheme of the Ministry of Works and Housing or of the Corporation for house building purposes or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source shall not be eligible for the grant of this withdrawal.

(2) Meeting the cost of higher education including where necessary, the Travelling expenses of any child of the member in the following cases, namely:—

(i) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the study of the High School stage; and

(ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is not less than three years.

(3) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the member's sons, daughters, sisters and any other dependent female relations.

Provided that a permanent withdrawal sanctioned under the foregoing clause, shall not normally exceed 50% of the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the member in the Fund as on date or six months' pay whichever is less, but the Trustees may, in their discretion, sanction in deserving cases withdrawal of an amount not exceeding two thirds of the said amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the member in the Fund as on Date or twelve months' pay whichever is less:

Provided further that permanent withdrawals as mentioned in the foregoing clauses shall be sanctioned by the Board to a member any time only after his completing twenty years of service (including broken period of service, if any) or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the member in the Fund

(4) Purchasing share or shares of Consumer's Co-operative Societies established for the benefit of the employees of the Corporation, provided that—

(a) the total amount of withdrawal shall not exceed Rs. 100/-;

(b) no such withdrawal shall be granted unless the competent authority is satisfied that the Consumer's Co-operative Society aims at a membership of not less than Rs. 250;

(c) the member shall authorise the competent authority to make payment direct to the Consumer's Co-operative Society towards the value of the share or shares purchased by him;

(d) the competent authority shall not make payment to the said Society without an undertaking being given by the Society to the effect that it will not transfer the share or shares to any other person without prior approval of such authority.
